Located on the second and top floor of a charming 1930s building on the Biesterweg, in the popular district of Stratum, this compact yet cozy studio of approximately 26 m² offers a comfortable and private living space. The studio is efficiently designed with an open living and sleeping area, a kitchen, and a private bathroom with a shower, toilet, and sink. Being situated on the top floor ensures plenty of natural light, added privacy, and a peaceful atmosphere.

The Biesterweg is situated in a neighborhood known for its green surroundings and friendly character. Supermarkets, restaurants, cafés, and all essential amenities are just around the corner. The vibrant city center of Eindhoven can be reached within a few minutes by bike. The location also offers excellent accessibility by car and public transport, with the A2 highway just minutes away and bus stops within walking distance.

This studio is ideal for one person – a student, young professional, or starter – looking for a private living space in a pleasant and well-connected area.
