The space is furnished with a generous designer corner sofa, an area rug, a modern coffee table, and a stylish dining area with comfortable chairs. The cinema wall with integrated television adds extra character and warmth to the room.

The open kitchen connects seamlessly to the living area and is finished in sleek white with a dark countertop. It is fully equipped with a combination oven/microwave, refrigerator, induction cooktop, dishwasher, and ample storage space. The cozy bar area provides an ideal spot for breakfast, drinks, or informal dining.

The apartment offers three bedrooms, one of which is furnished as a luxurious master bedroom with an upholstered headboard and storage ottoman, and another as a practical walk-in closet or home office. Here too, comfort, tranquility, and high-quality design have been prioritized. Underfloor heating is installed throughout the apartment, ensuring a pleasant indoor climate in all seasons.

The final decorative touches are still being refined, after which the apartment will be fully move-in ready and finished to the smallest detail.
